Veterinary Rules:

All participating animals must be clinically healthy and must undergo the veterinary check. Dogs that do not pass the veterinary inspection are excluded from the Championship. Dogs must be provided with a document with a valid vaccination. Dogs from the EU member countries and third countries must have a valid Pet Passport, i.e. veterinary certificate and must meet the conditions laid down in Regulation 576/2013/EU, as amended. Dogs must be marked with a microchip.

Titles Awarded:

The CACIT title is awarded to the best individual in IGP3 category whose performance in the Championship was evaluated as “excellent” or “very good”. The Res. CACIT title is awarded to a dog on the second place in IGP3 category provided that the above mentioned evaluation was met. The titles are awarded for exceptionally high-quality performances, and cannot be claimed.

The National Champion of RKČR title can be awarded only to citizens of the Czech Republic if the competing team has met the above mentioned conditions.

The Championship includes a special prize – The Cup of the Mayor of Dolní Újezd for the best IGP3 long attack, and other prizes are prepared for the participants.

Protest:

The written protest, together with CZK 2,000 deposit, must be submitted before the judging is finished. The principal is forfeited in the event of an unjustified protest. Protests are allowed only for formal reasons due to violations of the IGP rules and Rules of the event. The judge’s evaluation is final.
